

Ellen Brown Appointed to Board of Directors of Avery-Copp House

November, 2013 – Ellen Brown has recently been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Avery-Copp House. This organization celebrates, preserves and documents the historic home located on Thames Street in Groton City, its collections and the grounds belonging to the Avery and Copp families. The mission of the organization is to engage the public in learning about the history of Groton through the study of domestic life as it was experienced in this house and this community.
