

Attorney Jonathan Aubin joins the firm

Waller Smith & Palmer is pleased to announce that Attorney Jonathan Aubin has joined the firm. Attorney Aubin was recently admitted to the bar for the state of Connecticut. He received his BA from the University of Connecticut and his JD from Quinnipiac University School of Law, magna cum laude, where he served as the Publication Editor of the Quinnipiac Law Review.

Before he began law school, Jonathan worked for 8 years as a high school English teacher in the New Haven public school system. During his tenure at Hill Regional Career Magnet High School, Jonathan initiated a course in film studies, published two units of study as a fellow with the Yale-New Haven Teachers Institute, and served as the head coach of the men's tennis team.

Jonathan was raised in Colchester and Canterbury and graduated from Norwich Free Academy. He currently resides in New Haven with his family. He is a member of the Connecticut and New London County Bar Associations and serves as a volunteer arbitrator for the Connecticut Bar Association fee dispute program.

Attorney Aubin will focus his practice in the area of litigation, including land use, municipal, family, personal injury, education, and employment law.

Attorney Aubin can be reached at 860 442-0367 or jraubin@wsp.legal.
